E
I got myself a leather jacket
G#7
from the British Heart Foundation
A
And I've been rock-rock-rockin'
E B7
this bad boy look since then

E
I know I only look like James Dean
G#7
in my own imagination
A
but I've been dream-dream-dream-dream-dreamin'
E B7
the same old dream

E
Man, I really think I got a bargain
G#7
Pointed out a small stain in the lining
A
Now I'm lying in the grass
my new best friend
B
and thinking I can take on the world in a weekend

E
I've got a faulty alternator
G#7
in my P wrench(?) Ford Fiesta
A
and I've been park-park-parkin'
E B7
at the top of the hill for a while

E
I've got to get enough momentum
G#7
To drag me out of this depression
A E B7
I need a spark (spark) of inspiration please

E
But I've got the kind of coach you feel at home in
G#7
Probably have a (???) before somebody somebody brained him(?)
A
Now I'm sitting in my car

at the bottom of the hill
B
And I'm not going anywhere this weekend

E chucking

(Single strum)

E
Once I built a bottle rocket

G#7
That outstripped the competition
(normal strum)

A E B7
And my foot pumped on my footpump until it flew

E
Up above the upturned faces

G#7
Of aspiring diminutive space scientists
A E B7
and I remember hoping it would never come back down

E
But gravity's a law you can depend on

G#7
Got less than ten pounds to spend on

A B
Looking hip, sick, suave, and definitely debonaire

A
but I don't care

C Cm G
I feel lighter than the air
